APPLICATION FORM FOR CLAPMOC

The Public Interest Law Clinic (PILAC) of Makerere Law School is the first university based law clinic. PILAC's vision is: A legal profession alive to the social justice needs of the vulnerable. Its Mission is: To promote social justice through legal education, research, legal aid, public interest and building strategic partnerships. The PILAC values are: Equitable access to justice, non-discrimination, transparency, accountability and community empowerment.

PILAC will achieve this vision among others through the Community Law Programme and Mobile Law Clinic (CLAPMOC). CLAPMOC's objective is: To enhance the law students' capacity using practical teaching methods that will prepare them for public interest law careers and harness their skills for the benefit of indigent communities and individuals. The outcome of this objective is increased levels of legal awareness for law students and indigent communities.

CLAPMOC law students will be trained in public interest lawyering skills to train the vulnerable communities and in turn the vulnerable and indigent people will be supported in direct legal aid services. The activities the law students will engage in are: Legal research, presentation of research findings, training vulnerable communities, support Advocates in legal representation, legal counselling and mediation.

CLAPMOC students will acquire communication skills, presentation skills, mediation skills, counselling skills, interviewing skills among others.

FOURTH AND THIRD YEAR LAW STUDENTS WITH PASSION TO SERVE THE COMMUNITY ARE ENCOURAGED TO APPLY.
